RISING

How can I help not to sing a good song
When everything`s sprouting, wherever I look
How can I help not to sing a bright tune
When everything here`s in the bloom of youth

I reach down there to find a ripening shell
She`s loosening up to show her priceless pearl
Stunning act for only the chosen to share

I feel it grow

Revealing her real treasure with a soft sigh
& a hazy glance at me is an evident sign
The tiny snap at the bottom heaves up huge waves
Poseidon, out of the cave, is bound for the blaze

Feel it growing, Feel it rising, expanding, extending

*The power`s in the ground
I can feel it all around
The seed is safe & sound
The treasure has been found*

In the solid body & soul.

WISHES

Wishes & eagerness, hunger & greediness
Driving humanity into black hole
Vision's good ideas, loving of all of us
Easily brings salvation goal.

Million options to swim in the ocean
& reach horizons there
Intrigued & hooked by sweet images;
Explore, relish & share
But you needn't dive so deep to see the grime of plastic glare & deceit.

Unification of beauty idols doesn't make us real Disposable use of everything, oh tell me how it feels & crave for something we don't have & careless of what we've achieved & possess.

Wishes & eagerness, hunger & greediness
Driving humanity into black hole
Vision's good ideas, loving of all of us
Easily brings salvation's goal.

LIKE A DOG

When you`re born into the street among all unknown creatures
Your want & squalor makes litter seem a treat

You can have a little play, then something to bite to warm your bones, what else you could ask for in such a humble creed

If you`re lucky enough to shag a bitch from around the corner
Then you get the crabs to leave with true companions

You seem to have met so far too many strange people to believe in ever meeting someone who is pure & true

Born with a silver spoon in your mouth
Spares oneself much trouble
Palaver`s yet to come to have real fun

Prince or pauper, rich or poor
You can feel like a son of a bitch or a fool

Now & then, You feel all alone
like a rolling stone, though not free
Now, in the pouring rain you seek a drop of life with ragged veins

*You can feel so lonely
In a busy & crowded avenue
You`re falling apart slowly
Which another thing`s gonna leave you*

You can still dream hopefully to find someone to tell "I Love You"

You can sigh out peacefully

"At last I`m free !"

Now & then, you feel all alone
like a rolling stone, though not free
Now, in the pouring rain you seek a drop of life with ragged veins

In a Gucci`s brand new suit & cosy leather shoes

You shuffle down the street on your, like a dog, bedraggled feet

In a rather shabby mood
You try to find some food
For your torrid heart the dog that cannot bark

You`re looking for a spark
In the city, in the dark
In someone`s eyes you meet
The look that never cheats.

MY ONLY FRIEND

Music has always been my friend
Because of music I get back all my strength
I've had the deepest dive, I also lost my wife
I don't mind, now got a colorful life

It can be simple while retelling your life
Complex emotions are expressed clearly & wide
On tones & tunes I hover like a new kite
Tensions in harmonies show inner soul side

Music is such a priceless mate
Because of music, things always sound so great
It is much safer not to rely on anyone's words
I know the only journey is the journey within

I know, the only . . .
I know this journey

That is so easy while you're singing your life
Heaviest feelings are then clearer & light
On vibes & tunes I hover like a new kite
Tension in harmony will give you right sight

*And in times of darkest shades
Everything's fading away
You can't stop losing control of your senses and the shape of your soul*

*Your heart's shattered, your mind's confused
You can't shake off the blues
And down there you find a tune that'll lead you through*

Music is not my only friend

Because the music make people understand we´re one with open hearts and singing to the stars
We´re all one !
Open heart !
Sing songs to be the star !

It is so easy while you´re singing your life Hardest emotions are then softer & light
On vibes & tunes I hover like a new kite
Tension in harmony will give you the insight

INSIDE CLOUDS

Tell me that gone are the days with the sky overcast,
The dark clouds disappeared with dirt and dust to go out hand in hand with someone I can love & trust.

I`m tired of praying for the moments when nobody`s watching to crawl in the hole to last out the biting cold of people`s withering looks and the smell of malice and spite Still I haven`t quit looking for the silver line and the warmth of the sunshine

*So once I tried holding their stare & I found their eyes full of scares & scars
So I shout out loud
Who cares! Who cries!
No one dares hopes, dreams or believes that peace of mind can come so easily right now!*

It`s a fair crack of the whip to get rid of the lies and loose the shackles & ties why should we sit with our hands clasped in our laps waiting for ringing bells & choirs singing

Let us take off the black robes & hoods to feel the air warm & smooth cause now you`re in-side out no doubts `bout anything could be wrong or right Just feel secure & bright

At last I found out there were clouds inside my mind
And now I can see through!
Oh Bright Sky

I JUST WONDERED

I just wondered how to tell her
I just wondered how to act

I was shocked that I could burn
All the things
I had ever had

I just wondered how to tell her
She`s the one I could die for

She`s like a cougar in the prairie
Undaunted noble fairy
I`m a hunter who`s trembling
Should I dare to come forward?

I just couldn`t stop watching her
I must have looked like paralyzed

I just couldn`t stop worshipping
Her eyes, her legs, her everything

She`s like a puma in the prairie
Undaunted noble fairy
I`m a hunter who`s trembling
Do I have the right to accost her?

Every now and then I think of her
What might have happened then
Every now and then I think of her
What could have happened then...

LONG WAY

A long way for a fair view of things I couldn't see
In you
Now we'll make up for words that shouldn't have been said
If we don't start anew, we'll waste the whole lot of life

It's such a long way
In such a short term
Let's try to make it easier

That is the wrong way
Let out the psycho germs
Why not find understanding

The long way of the cold pain
led actually nowhere
Why don't we go home instead of moaning here in the rain.
No more
If we should stay together

It's such a long way
In such a short term
Let's try to make it easier

That is the wrong way
Let out the psycho germs
Why not find understanding

MY SCHOOL

I remember the first day I went to school
Full of mixed feelings of uncertainty
I tried hard so much to look cool
I puffed the smoke out of my nose
I started coughing, loss of dignity
Made me stop using cheap tricks

It was hard, it was fun, it was all I needed
I`m so proud, I`m your son, that`s the way I feel it
It was hard, it was fun, it was all I needed
Hey school, I`m your son, that`s the way I feel it

I won`t forget the first time I kissed a girl
I was shaking & she gave me a wink `n` a smile, she said:
"I`ll teach you kissing, you help with homework"
The teachers will see it just goes fine

It was hard, it was fun, it was all I needed
When it`s done, when it`s gone, everything seems easy
It was hard, it was fun, it was all I needed
Hey school, I`m your son, that`s the way I feel it !

I`m just glad I could share it all with you.

WRETCHED HARMONY

It's not that easy to get the shit away
You gotta spread it, slide it, use your way

No matter how much you try to look cool
You can't help feeling like a stinky fool

*A wretched fool is not fun to be with
A wretched fool is not fun to be*

Bite the bitter pill life's prepared for you to see

Harmony    Wretched Harmony

Everything you've trusted has fallen flat
Your soul's mode turns to being sad
The body trembles in confusion, you gotta
Hit the bottom and bounce back

It's not that easy to get the shit away
You gotta spread it, slide it, use your way
No matter how much you try to look cool
You can't help feeling like a stinky fool

*A wretched fool is not fun to be with
A wretched fool is not fun to be*

SPARKLES CRY

What a charm to meet the one
That starts your heart melt & fry
Once you get an impression of her
You can't get it off your mind

Whatever stops you on the way
The desire grows, it's more intense
A bitter note of an eventual failure
Turns your blood into sparkling wine
Sparkles cry
Sparks fly

What a charm to meet the one
That pumps your ego wet & dry
Once you get an impression of him
You can't rub it out of sight

If something trammels on the way
The desire grows, it's more intense
The gravity of destinies
Words are useless, 'cause sparkles cry
Sparks fly

*What a chance to meet someone You've always dreamed 'bout secretly & that's the thing you hum and haw
'cause your heart 's flooded ferociously*

The nature finds the way herself
Wireless electricity
The attraction of entities
The orbs will crash and sparkles cry
Electrifying captivity
Ring entangles solid body
To set off the ecstatic ride

The stars can hear the sparkles cry

RUNNER

Why don't you laugh When you're being tickled by the death's sickle

I make the death laugh when I tickle
The edge of her sickle

Where is the flaw
When a friend of yours Leaves thru your backdoor

Why don't you fight
When your closest friend's shagging your wife

Why don't you smile
When the only thing for you is to say goodbye

I make him a runner Cause I gave him both my wife & my lover

I make him run away
'cause I gave him my wife and said: 'for him I pray'

GO & ROCK

Whenever you find yourself in need to be younger Whatever you`d lay down just to feel a bit stronger
You have and urge to do the thing but you`re still insecure

Go & rock`n`roll,
from the bottom of your soul
ya`ll see you rock the world

No one has ever cared about your mental disorder
The shrink`s just let you shoot the shit to bleed the client`s purse
But how to fling away the fixed feeling you`re lost and cursed

Go & rock`n`roll,
from the bottom of your soul

SOLID COLOUR SCENE

Should home be a safe place
I always hoped it would be
I don't know who's holding the wheel
Used to think it had been me

What do we do with silly rain?
Someone's here to tear up the veins
Come on, let's make it clear release

What kind of dream
What kind of dream
What kind of dream

Revelation to go
Through solid colour scene
Solid Colour Scene

Now we're gonna pick up the bones
Assamble the whole body
Scarred tissue silently grows
Nobody knows where it goes
We'd better wake up the soul
Is it a dream or reality?
Why does the speed grow?
Is it a sign of insanity?

Revelation to go
Thru solid colour scene

NOCTURNE

I`m driving fast onwards
There`s no need of words
Hearing time whistle in the air
I don`t worry, I don`t care

Don`t know if it`s gloom or fatigue
Is there still someone I wanna speak to?
& I say "oh dear"
Am I going to shed a tear?

The darkness stares at me
The place`s so strange to me
The dark`s so close & eerie
Inaudible screaming

How many years have I held the wheel
So many times I`ve steered through fear
I`ve liked the war as well as peace
I see my face`s getting creased

The darkness stares at me
The place`s so strange to me
The dark`s so close & eerie
Inaudible screaming

How many faces have I seen?
What everything have they revealed?

How many faces have I seen?
What have their eyes tried to read?

How many places have I run into?
How many traces `ve disappeared?

How many roads have I gone through?
& have I really known the truth?

How many paths have I gone through?
& have I really learned the truth?
Just where I`m going . . .

See the Grace

Retain the skill to see the grace
All around even if it is grey
You`ll still stay young
Your soul turns gold
In the space of silver rain.

All the shades cast around the place,
Coming from the haze
Hiding freaky wicked face.

But the Lack of light that ran me off the road,
Turned things to scarecrow
The Glow ignites the Lines, Curves and Shapes, Bright Times
Makes True Beauty Shine
Dark & evil's only lack of light & love
Here comes the Light.

Retain the skill to see the grace
All around even if it is grey
You`ll still stay young
Your soul turns gold
In the space of silver rain.

See the grace everywhere
See the grace in the wildest place
Join the waves & ride in space
On the charm of alluring light
Let yourself fly!

A Moment

We´re only here for a moment.
Why don´t we live the moment?

Driven by a flame of passion in the heart
This is the beginning of a very good start
Listen to the nightingales & owls in the wood Needn´t ask what you can or what you could...

The life is fun, it is so fine
Though it´s rushed by hasty time
Like the wild geese in the sky
Feel the sweet momentum of the flight.

We´re only here for a moment!
Why don´t we live the moment?

Keep in mind that Life is One, Love is One
Right Now

Not in any another time
Love is kind, Life is Good Stop saying I would or I could...
Not even I would have, I could have...

What was and will be is not where you´re supposed to be

Express the real being;

When I am, I can.

Don´t forget that
You Are, You Can!
